

Category	Issues	Advice	Decisions Sought
Gaps with current legal authorities	- Identify other enforcement legislation needed. - Local and Provincial law enforcement agencies to identify resource needs.	RCMP Provinces and Territories
Other without current legal authorities	- Legislative changes to enhance FINTRAC's powers around crown sourcing funding under PCMLTFA - Legislation changes to the Bank Act and abilities to freeze accounts
Additional measures to support	Implement Maximum Enforcement Strategy comparable to approach taken by Ontario Maximize penalties including revocation of licenses, loss of operating certificates and fines for those using private or commercial vehicles in an illegal blockade.
	- Implementation of GC "Tow Truck Strategy" including: - financial incentives to provide services, - penalties for failing to provide services, - federal support for procurement (services and / or trucks), - identification of qualified drivers employed by all levels of government; - engagement with the U.S. (e.g. Montana and North Dakota); and - securing support of major freight operators (who are the primary users of heavy tow trucks).	TC
	Under the National Capital Commission Act have the NCC lease downtown property to the federal government for 14 days for $1. Then enact regulatory power to create restrictions and then enforce.
	RCMP/CSIS to launch any and all relevant investigations
	Have the US confirm that anyone with responsibility is barred from entering the US and confirm that Canada will share its list of convicted individuals with the US

	• Exercise any available powers under the Not-for-Profit Act to void the convoy being registered under the Act
	• Activate a Government Operations Command Centre
	• Identify a federal operational lead coordinator
	• Denying entry to Canada for foreign nationals who have committed offenses related to the protests.
	• Denying entry to the U.S. for Canadian citizens or permanent residents who have committed offenses related to the protests
s.37			